

Dunlop on Jersey Company Law

Mark Dunlop

This book is the first comprehensive book to be published on Jersey company law. It is written by Mark Dunlop, an advocate of the Royal Court of Jersey and a partner of Bedell Cristin, a leading Jersey law firm. The book examines in detail the Jersey company law legislation and comments on the leading Jersey law cases relating to company law matters. The book will be of interest to lawyers who deal with Jersey companies, directors of Jersey companies, shareholders of Jersey companies, trust companies who administer Jersey companies and students of Jersey company law.

The book has been commended by Michael Birt, The Bailiff of Jersey in the following terms:

"I am pleased to commend the first edition of 'Dunlop on Jersey Company Law' to the many who have an interest in the subject. The book is a comprehensive and valuable work on Jersey company law and examines in detail the Companies (Jersey) Law 1991 and related statutes. It also comments very helpfully on the leading Jersey cases on company law as well as those English cases incorporated into Jersey law. As the only comprehensive textbook to be published on Jersey company law, I am sure it will be of great assistance to lawyers, bankers, accountants, directors and regulators and generally all those who work in Jersey's finance industry. I congratulate the author for his initiative in producing this valuable addition to the literature on the law of Jersey".

Mark Dunlop

Mark specialises in banking and corporate finance transactions and has acted for many leading banks, financial institutions and companies on a range of innovative transactions. Before joining Bedell Cristin, Mark was a partner in the banking and projects group of Addleshaw Goddard in London.

Mark is recognised as a leading practitioner by Chambers 2010, which acknowledges that Mark "is noted for his well-regarded banking practice and his skilled work in insolvency and derivatives".

Essential reading for:

- Bankers, lawyers, accountants, directors, trustees, insolvency practitioners, administrators and regulators
- Professionals and clients generally, both within and outside Jersey advising on or dealing with Jersey companies
- Academics and Students of Jersey Law
